1. The name and address of claimant: Judith v. Wellington /aka/ Judith V. Kubrakova, with home address at 630 E. 42nd St., Brooklyn, N.Y. (hereinafter referred to as "Claimant" or "Ms. Wellington").

3. Ms. Judith Wellington was a paraprofessional at Public School 202 ("PS/IS 202"), Ernest S. Jenkyns, at 982 Hegeman Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.
4. The claim arises from, among other things, actions and statements made by Respondent Machael Spencer-Edwards in his individual, personal, and official capacity as Principal of PS/IS 202, and by his authorized staff in their respective individual and official capacities (collectively referred to as "School Staff"), by said School Staff's targeting of the Claimant, Ms. Wellington, for unlawful retaliation, breach of contracts, wrongful termination, defamation, Respondents' adverse actions described above, Respondents' adverse actions as of yet unknown to Ms. Wellington; the dissemination by School Staff of false, erroneous, defamatory, reckless and malicious statements in evaluations, letters, and year end evaluations by School Staff; School Staff's discriminatory actions and statements against claimant; School Staff's lack of due process in their investigation, discipline, and termination of claimant in connection with the fabricated allegations of corporal punishment proffered by School Staff, purportedly on behalf of children and former students of claimant at said school, regarding claimant's alleged use of corporal punishment against certain school children and students, and fabricated allegations of claimant's unauthorized actions in the school.

5. The claim is also based on, arises from, and/or includes Respondents' discriminatory actions, and violations of Claimant's CBA contract rights, New York State, federal, and New York City Laws including NYCDOE's rules and the Chancellor's Regulations, Claimant's due process and other constitutional rights, and/or include Respondents' retaliation for Claimant's mandated complaints and/or reports of physical and sexual abuses occurring between and amongst minor students at P.S. 202 which have been condoned and unreported by Respondents.
6. The claim also arises from Respondents' unlawful discrimination against Claimant based on her race, ethnicity, national origin, age, and/or gender. As Respondents has known, Claimant is a 46 year old, black/Hispanic, Panama born, female. Respondent Spencer-Edwards is a black, Jamaica born, male who is perceptively younger than Claimant, and was her superior and employer and school (assistant) principal since 2012. Respondent Spencer-Edwards unlawfully discriminated against Claimant by intentionally treating her worse than comparable staff with less seniority at P.S. 202 than Claimant, and who were/are younger than Claimant, and/or who were not black/Hispanic, Panama born, and/or female, like Claimant, by knowingly engaging in many discriminatory actions or omissions against claimant in the manner described herein.
7. The claim includes the following elements: Respondents retaliatory actions against Claimant for her lawful complaints and reports to her union (UFT), and to Acting School Superintendent Joyce Stallings-Harte, and/or to other staff, regarding many if not all of Respondents' actions described herein, such as the following: Respondent Spencer-Edwards' manufacture and proffer of coerced, unduly influenced, non-credible, recanted, fabricated accusations against Claimant regarding her having allegedly administering corporal punishment to her minor students at P.S. 202 – in connection with NYC DOE File No. 277786, DOE Case No. 15-00260X, and UFT Case # K000057272; Respondent Spencer-Edwards abusing his position by attempting to coerce and/or unduly influence other teachers at P.S. 202 into knowingly supporting fabricated and false accusations of corporal punishment and/or other wrongful activities allegedly perpetrated by Claimant and her former co-teacher Ms. Montague at P.S. 202; Respondents Spencer-Edwards and Ms. Brown attempting to, and actually, coercing and/or unduly influencing minor students at PS 202 to falsely accuse Claimant of corporal punishment in support of Respondent Spencer-Edwards' subsequent termination of Claimant's employment; Respondents' Spencer-Edwards and Ms. Brown's improper and fabricated "investigation" of said accusations; Claimant's improper termination hearing; Respondents' free speech prohibition of Claimant's right to discuss the events described herein with anyone other than Claimant's union representative; Respondents' selection and targeting of Claimant for dangerous and objectionable in-school and out-of-school assignments, such as Respondents' deliberately isolating Claimant with a known violent minor student, referred to herein as "E", despite Claimant's and her union's objections due to Claimant's lack of SE certification and training for such assignment, and also due to "E's" prior violent threat to, assault of, and false accusations about, Claimant; Respondent Spencer Edward's condoning of "E's" said threat to and attack on Claimant, and of "E's" subsequent false account of this event, and Respondent Edwards' prohibiting of witnesses' rebutting "E's" false account; Respondents' discriminatory violation of Claimant's contractual seniority rights regarding her class and student assignments; Respondents' reckless assignment of Claimant as a school "safety agent" despite Claimant's prior objection that she lacked the requisite training for such position; Respondent's deliberate manufacture of false negative letters about Claimant's performance and conduct at P.S. 202, and insertion in Claimant's file, in retaliation for Claimant's complaints and reports to, and about, Respondent Spencer-Edwards.

8. Claimant's claims are made in the context of Respondents' prior and sufficient knowledge of numerous complaints previously made by other P.S. 202 staff as well as students about Respondent Spencer Edwards, his non-credibility, and his repeated failure as a school principal and mandated reporter to adequately respond to and report student abuses occurring at PS 202. For example, Claimant claims that Respondents, especially Respondent Spencer-Edwards, knowingly condoned, failed to protect, endangered, and retaliated against, Claimant for her complaints and mandated reports of student abuses at P.S. 202, such as: ~~Respondent Spencer Edwards' public embarrassment and emotional abuse of a minor student referred to herein as "PDJ", in October 2013, regarding said minor's physical ailment or disability;~~ Respondent Spencer Edwards' refusal to intervene and rescue minor students who were reportedly being choked and/or hit by an older student, referred to herein as "E", and failure to later investigate or report said incidents; Respondents' refusal or failure to intervene, investigate, or report disclosed incidents involving a minor student referred to as "6" who repeatedly performed a sexual-like humping activity on other minor students at P.S. 202; Respondents' prior knowledge of school staff accusations and reports of Respondent Spencer-Edwards' unlawful entry into the school's girls' bathroom to reprimand girls presently using the bathroom. Respondents have additionally been negligent in connection with the safety and welfare of the school staff and children by not having offered or apprised Claimant (and probably other staff too), in the past 15 years, of any necessary staff training for handling violent encounters amongst, or with, special education or emotionally disturbed students at P.S. 202.

9. The context of Claimant's claim is also made in the context of Respondents' prior and sufficient knowledge of the following incidents and examples of Respondent Edwards' history and reputation for fabricating and soliciting false accusations and evaluations of "unwanted" staff members as his pretext for his and DOE's unwarranted defamation, termination, and/or other discipline of such staff. Such examples include but are not limited to: Respondents' prior knowledge of Respondent Edwards' past fabrication and submission of false job evaluations and negative letters regarding PS 202's former Assistant Principal Virginia Richards, and of her subsequent termination of employment based on said false evaluations; Respondents' prior knowledge of Respondent Spencer-Edwards' fabricated report of abuses allegedly committed by the former school aid Margaret Haaf, and her subsequent unjustified termination by Respondent Spencer-Edwards, in retaliation for Ms. Haaf's grievance to her union about Respondent Spencer-Edwards' violation of Ms. Haaf's school and CBA contract. (J.W.)

(J.W.)

Ms. Wellington seeks, among other things, the following relief: (a) Respondents must cease and desist from promulgating or distributing any negative evaluations and letters about her any further; (b) Respondents must rescind the prior illegal, wrongful, arbitrary and capricious negative ratings for Plaintiff for the 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 school years, and provide a full written retraction to claimant, and to her authorized agents and designees, of all Respondents' prior negative statements and evaluations about claimant caused to be made by Respondents or their agents; (c) giving Ms. Wellington positive ratings for the 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 academic years; (d) Respondents must purge Ms. Wellington's personnel file and any of respondents' records and systems of any reference to any negative evaluations, letters, records, disciplinary actions, investigative materials in connection with claimant's claims and Respondents' violations as described herein, and must ensure their destruction;
